

Final assignment

- Email to alexsclark@gmail.com
- About 1 page (an email is fine); by Saturday at noon. (The final grades have to be uploaded on Sunday, and I have a long flight on Saturday afternoon when I can have a look at these.)
- Pick some syntactic phenomenon that is NOT well modeled by distributional learning and explain why; and (optionally) explain how some modified technique might be capable of learning this phenomenon.